Ford Allowed Nine Four-Base Hits

Pitcher Who Has Gone Over To Federalists Was In Walter Johnson's Class When It Came To Granting Runs.

By E. J. LANIGAN

IT POSSIBLY will surprise fans to learn that Russell Ford, who has gone over to the Federalists, was in Walter Johnson's class in one respect last season, that respect being the permitting of home runs. The Yankee hurler allowed nine four bag blows to be struck by his adversaries and so did the man whom the newspaper experts picked as the player most valuable to his team. Ford and Johnson were nicknamed for more circuit clouts than any other American league pitchers.

The last named probably made the automobile winner for homers were Frank Baker (twice), Harry Hooper, "Buck" Weaver, Ray Schalk, Harry Lord, Joe Lake, Wheeler, Johnston and Joe Jackson. Four home runs drives off Ford were obtained by Johnston, Shantz, Sam Agnew, Derrill Pratt, Eddie Collins, Sam Williams, Eddie Ainsmith, Wallie Schang, Sam Crawford and Joe Jackson. The last named probably made the longest home run of the year when he landed on one of Ford's splitters in the game of June 4 and hoisted the ball over the right wing of the grandstand at the Polo Grounds.

Hughes Located For Eight Drives.

Next to Johnson and Ford, Tom Hughes of the Nationals allowed the greatest number of smashes for the full season. He was located for eight drives of this character. Bobby Groom of Washington had seven homers made off his delivery and these men had six: Baltimore's and Mitchell of St. Louis, Blanding of Cleveland, and Brown of Philadelphia. Five four baggers were secured off the arm of Hughes by the veteran Eddie Plank, one of the heroes of the world series of 1912, was nicked for three four baggers and so were Joe Boeding of Washington, Sam Hamilton and Walter Levern of St. Louis, Willie Mitchell of Cleveland and Ray Collins of Boston. Hughes was the American league's clearest out-pitcher.

Bender Gave One Home Run.

"Chief" Bender had only one home run made off his curve last season and that four bagger, manufactured by "Pine" Bodie of the White Sox, added a defeat to the record. Other barmen who allowed only one four bagger were Weiland of St. Louis, Sten of Cleveland, Daise of Detroit, Walsh of Chicago and Bedient of Boston. Joe Wood of the Red Sox was even stronger than all these men previously named, for he refused to allow anyone to get a homer off of his punning delivery.

150 Home Runners in Season.

Of the 159 four baggers made in the American league in 1913, 35 were obtained off Washington's pitchers; 31 off New York; 25 off Philadelphia; 20 off St. Louis; 19 off Cleveland; 13 of Detroit; 10 off Chicago and 6 off Boston.

Washington-Johnson 3, Hughes 5, Groom 7, Boeding 2, Engel 2, Gallis 2.

The individual list follows:

Washington-Johnson 3, Hughes 5, Groom 7, Boeding 2, Engel 2, Gallis 2.

Shadow Falls Upon the Career of Vargas; He May Not Model Again

Francisco Vargas, artist and master craftsman, may never model again. The little brown-skinned Mexican who makes the wonderfully artistic statues of Mexican types at his East El Paso home has contracted over his head, brown eyes and may never see again to model, shape and color the charcoal venders, the Indian vegetable sellers and the charrro chid cabelleros which have attracted tourists from all over the world to the curio shop at the Union station, where senior Vargas's creations are on display.

The little Mexican modeler has gone to New Orleans for an operation on his eyes and his doctors have told him that it is doubtful if he ever will be able to make his quaintly characteristic figures in wax again. The strain of his modeling, the necessity for the keenest observation in coloring and shaping has had its effect upon the artist's eyesight and he has been ordered to do no more of his original work for a year. If at all fortunate he will be able to do the work which he has been doing for a year, if at all fortunate he will be able to do the work which he has been doing for a year.

SAVES FAMILY FROM DEATH BY DYNAMITE

Chicago, Ill., March 2.—Just in time to save his frightened wife and children from being blown to bits by dynamite, Simon J. Gorman hurried home, rushing from his regular work at the highway, and tore it out in time to prevent the explosion of two sticks of dynamite.

Gorman, who is president of the Cook County Horsehoers' association, had heard an explosion and feared that his dynamite had been the scene of a dynamite attempt.

Hurrying indoors, Gorman found his wife and children cowering in the bed room. The north in the rear of the flat was demolished by the explosion which brought Gorman home and window of the building were broken.

Gorman told the police that a member of the Munster Horsehoers' association recently offered him $5000 if he would use his influence to bring about the consolidation of the two horsehoers' organizations.

The explosion resulted from his refusal, he asserted.

YOU CAN'T EARN MONEY WHEN YOU'RE LAID UP

There are a lot of people in this town who cannot afford to be sick. Perhaps none of you feel that you can, but certainly some of you can't, for as soon as you are sick you stop working and worry and debts begin to pile up. The sensible thing for you to do, as soon as you feel the first twinges of illness, is to get a bottle of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. It is a medicine that gets right at the trouble and relieves it by toning the nerves, enriching the blood, and giving new strength and health to the whole body. It doesn't do this by means of alcohol or habit-forming drugs, because it contains none. Its strength is in the blood, and it is due to pure Olive Oil and the Hypophosphites, long endorsed by successful physicians, and the iron foot powder, the other for its tonic value. Here, for the first time, they are combined, and the result is a real nerve, blood and body-building medicine—a real strengthener that we are proud to tell you about. You don't need to hesitate in using it, because it doesn't do all we say it will and satisfy you in every way, it will cost you nothing. If it doesn't cure you, you can get your money back. Come back and get your money. It will be given to you without word or question. Sold only at the more than 2000 Retail Stores, and in this town only by us. $1.00. Kelly & Pollard, People's Drug Store, 217 San Antonio St., El Paso, Texas.—Advertisement.
